Ceremonies Committee (Connor R.) - The ceremonies committee is looking forward to this coming year. This year, we hope to set up good communication between the ceremonies teams; as well as get new created. We also hope to set up a torchbearer core to involve new brothers as well as make communications and logistics on Friday night easier. In addition, we hope to be transitioned to the New Brotherhood Ceremony by the fall ordeal.

Drum and Dance (Cody S.) – Drum and Dance committee is looking forward to a good year. This year's goals are: have a pow-wow on Friday and Saturday at every function, get a portable sound system for the pow-wows, and get more adult and youth brothers active.

Activities Committee (Logan B.) – Looking forward to making more fun activities to fill empty time slots.

Publication Committee (Spencer K.) – Publications committee is looking forward to a great 2014 year. You will be seeing a lot more content from publications committee this year. Articles also should come on time.

Service Committee (Carter E.) The service committee already has 28.1 hours as of January 1st. They also have made their t-shirt design (in new business). To join the service committee contact Carter at 434-942-4755.

Trading Post Committee (Ben C.) - The Trading Post Committee is looking forward to a great 2014 year. The job of advisor just opened up so applications are being accepted.

Vigil Selections Committee (Drew M) - The goals of the vigil selections committee is to have all elangomats at the fall ordeal be vigil, providing online vigil forms, and possibly having a vigil only weekend of service this year.

Inductions Committee (Brent) - Goal is to implement the new schedule made during the EC Retreat.

Elangomat Committee (Seth R) – Goals of the Elangomat Committee are to improve communication with elangomats, making scripted programs for OA candidates, and improve elangomat incentive. Also for strong chapter award each chapter must provide at least 2 elangomats.

NOAC Committee (James D) – The NOAC committee is excited for the 2014 year and has big plans. Their goals are to go over and write their budget, do more fundraising, and create the Teutelo Lodge history “book”. They will also, as always, encourage NOAC to all brothers.

Dining Services Committee (KC R) – Dining services is looking forward to a great year. They will be helping kitchen crew by preparing for cracker-barrels.

Ceremonies Committee (Connor R): The Ceremonies Committee has started the year out strong. They are currently in the process of getting ceremonialists signed up and getting ready to be evaluated at Conclave as well as getting ready for the fast approaching function season. In addition, they are trying to set up good communication between the different ceremonies teams. One of the goals that the committee has this year is to set up torchbearer corps in hopes of making ceremonies on Friday nights of functions go more smoothly.

Drum and Dance (Cody S): Drum and Dance committee is continuing to work on their goals set in January. They have started by turning in their budget request form for a portable PA system to use for indoor pow wows at functions. They will begin working on pow wows when the function season arrives. They are working on getting dancers to compete at conclave.

Activities Committee (Logan B): I did not receive a report from the Activities Committee

Publications Committee (Spencer K): Spencer has gathered all of the articles submitted for the torchbearer and is currently editing the first Torchbearer. The Torchbearer should be sent out in early March.

Service Committee (Carter E): The service committee is hard at work. They have already completed 2 of their goals for the strong committee award and look forward to completing more as the year goes on. They are also working on their skilled labor list from all the chapters.

Trading Post Committee (Bin C): The trading post committee is working towards being ready for the first function. They are currently working on budgeting and inventories so they will be ready to get everyone their patches. They have some big ideas for the year ahead and want to make 2014 the best year for the committee and for Tutelo.

Vigil Selections Committee (Drew M): The vigil selections committee is eager to get the ball rolling this year. Ideas for the vigil only weekend are still bouncing around and information is hopefully soon to come.

Inductions Committee (Brent): I did not receive a report from Inductions Committee.

Elangomat Committee (Seth R): The elangomat committee is looking forward to the inductions coming up. They are preparing training for elangomats to be given at the lodge meeting before the spring function.

NOAC Committee (James D): The NOAC committee has been devising plans for the year and is creating the fundraiser magnet that was approved last year. They should be ready to sell by the spring function.

Dining Services Committee (KC R): The dining services committee attended the EC retreat in January where they discussed some plans to use at functions. They look forward to trying them out at the spring functions.

Tuscarora Chapter (Neal M): The Tuscarora chapter is having regular meetings. They have their Winter Camporee coming up soon. They have one last work day at Camp Piton. They will have their tap out ceremony at the camporee. At the spring ordeal they are going to do some work at Foxfire. At Webelos to Reservation they will be running the Mountain Man portion.

Rawenok (Jacob S): The Rawenok chapter has been hard at work planning elections and the upcoming function season. They elected officers and chairmen in their last meeting and are looking forward to improving their chapter and the lodge. Their current goal is to get all the OA reps to the chapter meetings.

Wilkip Jo (Dakota L): Wilkip Jo is going to help fix up Claytor Lake Aquatics Base this month. They have also voted to "adopt" the camp. They are off to a great start and are excited to see what is in store for their chapter.

Moneton (Warren C): Moneton has formed an eagle ceremony for their scouts and are currently working on the chapel. They will be doing crafts at the Webelos to the Reservation event.

Lappilenin (Jason M): Lappilenin has had a good start to the year. They have discussed ideas for their new totem. They also have been talking about OA Reps and Rep Advisors, Dues, and Ceremonialist training.

Catawba (Hunter J): Catawba is off to a great start this year. They have appointed most of their committees. They are donating to the Burchett family and to Friends of Scouting. They are also buying new bonnets.

Koo Koo Ku Hoo (Caleb E): Kook has had a great month. They have three service projects planned for Feb. 15, March 1, and March 15.
